

PREDISPOSED BREEDS

PROTECTED BREEDS

*Reference category

Veterinarians should test for the adequacy of tear production as part of the annual physical examination of all dogs. Predisposed breeds should be monitored very carefully, especially as they approach their later years.

The high predisposition to dry eye of f at faced breeds supports the advice from the UK Brachycephalic Working Group to "Stop and think before buying a f at-faced dog".